

Alpha Alpha Chapter supports the purposes of Delta Kappa Gamma Society, International

Seven purposes of ΔΚΓ

1. To unite women educators in spiritual fellowship
2. To honor women who have given or who evidence a potential for distinctive service in education
3. To advance the professional interest and position of women in education
4. To initiate and support legislation in the interests of education and women educators
5. To endow scholarships to help women educators pursue graduate study & to grant fellowships to women educators from other countries
6. To stimulate personal and professional growth and to encourage participation in programs of action
7. To inform members of economic, social, political, and educational issues to help them participate in a world society

ΔΚΓ membership is by invitation and represents a broad cross section of educational interests. Members must be employed as a professional educator at the time of their election or be retired from an educational position. They must be contributing members of their communities and exhibit professional proficiency.

Alpha Alpha activities support the purposes of ΔΚΓ

Alpha Alpha Chapter:

- * Presents awards to women leaders in the community,
- * Presents informational programs on education and legislative issues,
- * Presents seven annual financial awards to young women studying to be educators,
- * Offers many opportunities for professional and personal growth and networking,
- * Offers scholarships to members in concert with its state organization, PI State, and ΔΚΓ International for advanced study and educational projects.
